

JAY COURTNEY

Senior Designer

EDUCATION

B. of Science, Landscape Architecture, Colorado State University, Fort Collins, 2011
General Studies, Fine Arts, Front Range Community College, Fort Collins, 2007

NOTABLE WORK

Design Workshop

Public/Urban Design/Resort/Masterplan

- Thaiwoo All Seasons Resort: Chongli, China
- Buttermilk Ski Resort Base Area Re-Development: Aspen, CO
- Cao'E River Resort Masterplan Design Competition: Shangyu, China
- St. Louis Transit Oriented Development Plan: St. Louis, MO
- Matchett Park Masterplan: Grand Junction, CO
- Gypsum Corridor Enhancement: Gypsum, CO
- Pitkin County Library: Aspen, CO

Residential Design

- Woody Creek Ranch Residence: Pitkin County, CO
- Castle Creek Residence: Aspen, CO
- Woody Creek Garden: Pitkin County, CO
- Park City Retreat: Park City, UT
- Cherry Creek Modern Residence: Denver, CO

AWARDS & AFFILIATIONS

2013 ASLA Colorado Merit Award
2015 APA STAR Award
Colorado State University Guest Lecture
ASLA Student Chapter - Colorado State University
Capmus Crest Community Workshop
Roaring Fork Outdoor Volunteer
Green Drinks Aspen Volunteer

Landscape Design Intern

Community and Design Planning

- Downtown Sterling Masterplan and Wayfinding: Sterling, CO
- Bandt Park and Community Garden: Elizabeth, CO

Other Experience

- Landscape Design & Installation - Freelance Design Build: Fort Collins, CO
- Arborist Consulting & Expert Tree Pruning - Self Employed: Fort Collins, CO
- Swingle Lawn, Tree & Landscape Care - Arborist: Fort Collins, CO

Jay has a solid foundation in design and planning gained with project experience in international projects, urban design, resort design, and multiple residential projects. He is a Colorado native educated at Colorado State University. He values the importance and significance that design and ecology can play in the role of design and the creation of great spaces that can thrive with this balanced approach.